Rodney Douglas Ford

Rodney Douglas Ford, age 82, of Provo, died November 25, 1994, in Yuma, Arizona. He was born December 22, 1911, in Wallsburg, Utah, a son of Melburn Alfred and Jane Sabey Ford. He married Darla Deen Radmall in February of 1956 in Provo, Utah.

Rodney's family moved to Provo when he was six years old. He began working for the City of Provo on February 1, 1937 as an equipment operator. In 1958, Rodney became street foreman and was promoted to Assistant Street Superintendent the following year. He became the Street Superintendent in 1961, a position he filled for 16 years. His duties included the supervision of cleaning the streets and gutters and sanding and clearing snow from 165 miles of city streets. Rodney retired on June 25, 1977.

Rodney served his country as a Heavy Equipment Operator in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He was an avid outdoorsman and belonged to the Outdoor Sportsman's Club. His many activities included camping, hunting, fishing, boating, skiing, bowling, and traveling; but Rodney is probably best remembered as an avid golfer. He was a member of the Over-the-Hill gang. He won trophies for bowling and golfing. Rodney had an excellent sense of humor and a deep respect and love for life.

Rodney is survived by his wife Darla of Provo; four sons and one daughter: Brent W. Ford; Michael Rodney Ford, of Orem, Utah; Mark Ford, of Provo, Utah; Karen Hansen, of Payson, Utah; and John Morrill of Wasilla, AK; 16 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren; five brothers and one sister: Melburn Ford, Max Ford, Beth Shaffer, Garth Ford, Howard Ford, and Hal Ford, all of Provo. He was preceded in death by Emmett Ford, Dwayne Ford, Ivadell Ford and Morris Ford.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, December 1, 1994, 11 a.m., at the Berg Mortuary of Provo, 185 East Center Street. Friends may call at the Mortuary on Wednesday evening from 6-8 p.m. or Thursday morning one hour prior to services. Interment, Provo City Cemetery.
